Musings from the Manse

Recently I answered my phone to an unknown number, instantly suspicious and poised to hang up if I was talking to a machine or a call centre. A reassuringly human voice identified herself as a caller from TEAR Fund, a charity close to my heart. That was nice, but I hate marketing calls too, even from Christians I respect. My defences were still in place.

She began by warmly thanking me for being a regular donor for over two decades. That was OK. She mentioned very briefly some of the brilliant work TEAR Fund is currently doing with these donations (though I'm not sure than my small amount is changing the world). That was OK too. Then she politely got to where I knew she was going: though times are hard for many of us, would I be willing to consider increasing my donation?

I don't like being asked for money, and though I love TEAR Fund I wasn't sure I approved of this. To be honest, I was frantically trying to remember how much I give anyway. I was ready to say No and get rid of her when a question occurred: when did I last increase my giving? She told me: February 2011. Ah. I then asked her how much I give, and was embarrassed by the answer. This was a much-needed reality check on my assumption that I was a seriously supporting a cause to which I'm genuinely committed.

I thought about putting it off until tomorrow, but really I had no doubt at all about what I needed to do. So I sorted it, right there on the phone. And no, I don't like being asked – but sometimes I have to be.

If I don't like being asked for money, I like doing the asking even less – but sometimes it's needed. Not because the church needs a new roof or is paying off a major debt, but because our Christian discipleship is more than good intentions. It's a lifestyle of giving, including giving to God's work as a regular financial commitment.

I learned a few things from the nice woman on the phone. So firstly, if you give at all to the church, a very sincere thank you. Apologies that we're not good at thanking people for their donations at APC. We need to do that better, and we're working on it.

Secondly, we know that most of us have unplanned costs with rising mortgages and utilities. So if you're already giving all that you can, this is not for you (or the first bit is, but not the second!)

And finally, can you consider increasing your regular giving? To support the great work the church is doing and to empower us to do more – but mostly, to joyfully say thanks to our generous God. All the information you need is here, on the website, and in the leaflets at church. If you have questions, please ask.

Maybe you have the reaction I had when I answered the call that day – and just maybe, like me, you need a reality check. Ponder, pray, and enjoy the newsletter!

Love to you all

Lynn

Message from Rev Iain Paton

Dear members of the congregation,

You may remember that I wrote in the newsletter about nine months ago, saying that I was reducing my workload as the Assistant Minister from two days each week to one day. It sounded a good idea at the time, but I have to say now that it didn't work! I am not all that good at saying 'no', Come to think of it, as most of my work involves hospital calls, sick visits and funerals, it's unlikely that any of these functions are going to halve in number just because I should like them to. All that reduced was my pay! Realistically, it's high time that I stopped altogether anyway, and bowed to the inevitable of which I am reminded frequently by aching joints, and an increasing inability to remember everyone's name.

I am therefore going to retire properly from APC at the end of May. That seems to me to be a good time, as it will be just before Alan McKay takes up his post as our probationer assistant minister. I expect that part of his duties will turn out to be the same as mine were hitherto.

Marjorie and I will still be around for sure. We are still members of the congregation and have every intention of playing our part around the Church. I'm still looking after the congregation over at Muthill as the Presbytery's interim moderator there, so my brain will still get some work to do. I think I have been at APC for about eight years, first working alongside Rob Barlow and then as locum minister when he left. In the last five years it has been a pleasure to work alongside Lynn McChlery and to get to enjoy her ministry, knowing that it was not all dependent on me.

So I continue to give God thanks for the opportunity to minister in His Church one way or another since 1980. Part of my APC chapter is closing, but not everything else is, so as is said in other circles, 'I'll still see you around'.

May the Lord bless and keep us all,

Rev. Iain Paton.

Wednesday Worship

@ Auchterarder Parish Church

Each week we have a mid-week worship service on Wednesdays from 2-2.30pm. These will be in the comfort of the Church Centre and there will be a chance to have a time of fellowship afterwards over a cup of tea.

There will be singing, a time for prayer, Bible reading and a short reflection.

There is no need to let anyone know you are coming. Just come along and you will be made most welcome.

Community Action Plan 2nd Birthday Celebration

You're invited to join us for a day of Community fun with Adventure Circus - Mini shows and workshops: try your hand at aerial, juggling, hula hoop, spinning plates.

Date: Sunday 28th April

Time: 11.30am - 3pm

Location: Aytoun Hall

Alongside the Circus fun, there will be the opportunity to hear about what's happened (and what's happening) in Auchterarder and Aberuthven.

The Community Action Plan launched nearly two years ago and thanks to the efforts of the community, there has been amazing progress. Come along, enjoy a cuppa and some birthday nibbles and celebrate!

Update from the Guild

Several members of the Guild Committee met for lunch in Cafe Kisa on 10th April where they enjoyed fellowship together.

Wednesday evening, 24th April, saw a large gathering in the church for the visit of the Gargunnoch Songsters by whom we were richly entertained both by their beautiful singing and their conductor's jokes. Money raised, £670, from this event will go towards the Guild Projects. Marjorie Paton gave a brief summary of the projects over the years, including the total amounts raised, for those in the audience who might be unaware of this part of the Guilds wider work. The concert was followed by our annual Spring Tea held in the Church Centre. Judging by the buzz of chat and laughter it can safely be assumed that everyone had an enjoyable evening. This brought our session to a close but the work will continue in preparing for our new session starting in the Autumn when we would love to welcome new members as well as returning members.

On 11th May, Perth and Kinross Guilds Together event "Shared Visions" will be held in APC from 11am - 3pm.

What a busy time we had over Easter!

Chicks, eggs, ribbons, flowers and lots of glue. Our Easter Bonnets were spectacular, and our Easter Cards must have been very gratefully received. There were quizzes, games, stories and, best of all, there was a chocolate egg left for me - well done everyone!

Kidsteam meets every Sunday morning, in the church centre, after the children's hymn. We are looking forward to spending time with you all.

Cycling group

We managed an enjoyable cycle to Comrie in April. It was really good to get the group together and catch up whilst enjoying some sun, coffee and superb scenery.

For our cycle on 25th May the suggestion is that we attempt to do a loop around Clathy/Methven and then head back to Dunning for coffee at Pitmeadow Farm where the "Inspiration Orchestra" will be performing. As this event starts at 10.30 it will allow us to do a good length of cycle and then for those of us who want to be inspired by this event we can head for the farm around 11 or so. Stu, Suzie and I were blown away by these wonderful folks last year and would highly recommend this (<https://theinspirationorchestra.com>). We will leave the church at 8.30 on the 25th aiming to be back at 12.30pm. If some folk need to be back earlier then there may be a split in the group after coffee to allow those who need to get back earlier to do so (this seemed to work well in April). The cycle is all obviously weather permitting.

If you wish to come on the cycle you can either use the WhatsApp group to tell us (please send on your phone number to my email address) or email me at s.mcchlery@gcu.ac.uk. Remember that e-bikes are warmly welcomed. Stuart

APC Messy Church - May

Esther was the person we met in April's Messy Church as we continue to look at characters from the bible. We even got to play a part in her story as we all got involved in some drama. Esther reminded us that even in tough times when others might be against us we should continue to follow God and do what he would want us to do.

We sang some songs one being Be Bold, Be Strong which reminds us not to be afraid because God is always with us. If we are afraid of the dark or feeling anxious with exams or having health issues God is with us and will help us get through.

The afternoon was filled with crafts and activities, we did an egg hunt around the church and made jewellery and crowns as well as getting our nails done and a few tattoos!!!

Next Messy Church is at Pitmeadow Farm, Sunday 5th May from 3.30-5pm. Please bring your own picnic and warm clothes as we hope to be outside. You'll meet some animals, do a wee scavenger hunt, play some games and we'll eat our picnics together in the sun! We look forward to seeing you there.

AUCHTERARDER and DISTRICT MEN'S SHED

PRESENTS

GWEN MAIRI, PROFESSIONAL HAPIST

TUESDAY 11TH JUNE 2024, AT 2PM

IN AUCHTERARDER PARISH CHURCH COMMUNITY CENTRE

Gwen is a graduate of the Royal Scottish Academy of Music and Drama (now Royal Conservatoire of Scotland). She has worked with Royal Scottish National Orchestra, Scottish Chamber Orchestra, Shanghai Symphony Orchestra, Bangkok Symphony Orchestra, the orchestra and education department of Scottish Opera as well as teaching, publishing music and performing the music of Wales and Scotland in a traditionally informed contemporary style. She has performed at the Edinburgh International Festival and at the National Eisteddfod.

Gwen will talk about the history of the harp, explain the workings of a pedal harp and will play several pieces of music.

Your chance to get up close and personal with this fantastic musical instrument.

Anyone interested in music is cordially invited to this presentation.

Admission is by donation

ANGELS; This Christmas the craft group aim to make 1,000 angels to give to the residents and staff of our 3 care homes and St Margaret’s hospital and to hang them around Auchterarder. Each angel will have a message hung round the neck. These have been greatly appreciated the 2 years we have made them. BUT we need more help. The pattern is here but there will also be patterns and a box for the angels at the back of the church. If you want any more information please speak to Marjorie Paton or Margaret Dunster.

Angels knitting pattern below

IMPORTANT – READ THIS FIRST

SIZE is not crucial. Use DK or 4ply yarn, and needles sized between 3.25 and 4mm [that’s 8, 9 or 10 in old UK sizes] Wool or acrylic- NOT cotton or silk, it is too floppy!

PLEASE DO NOT block or iron your finished pieces- the curled up edge is CRUCIAL to the way the angel stands

We need TWO types of angels; PLAIN WHITE, with NO hair/eyes/etc - and COLOURED which may have body, face & wings in different colours, and optional embroidered hair & eyes.

WINGS – if you find the “wrap and turn” technique too complicated, just knit angel bodies, and wings will be added later by someone else!

SEWING UP & OPTIONAL EMBROIDERED DETAILS- this can be done by someone else too, if you like – just knit the angel!
